The event encompassed a diverse range of sessions aimed at enriching the experience of the incoming first-year BA students. Commencing with a heartfelt prayer led by Fr. Ramiro Louis and his team, the program then transitioned to a welcoming address delivered by Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Fr. Salema extended a warm welcome to both parents and students, emphasizing the college's vision statement, "Formation for Transformation," urging students to aspire to become exemplary citizens. He counselled them to uphold virtues and cautioned against succumbing to vices, stressing the importance of judicious use of their time on campus. Parents were reminded of the significance of punctuality in their children's academic journey. Principal Ms. Ursula Barretto congratulated the new Xavierites and shared insights on achieving success through diligence rather than innate brilliance.
