Report	"The sky's the limit. Be creative, be positive, and be passionate." — Sachin Chatte The Department of Mass Communication and Journalism at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, successfully organized the 9th edition of MediaScope on October 1, 2024, on the college campus. This event invited higher secondary students from across Goa to compete in various competitions, providing them with a valuable glimpse into the world of media. A total of 14 higher secondary schools participated in this engaging event. The Chief Guest for the occasion was Sachin Chatte, a film critic at Navhind Times, Radio Jockey, and Cricket Commentator. Fermentos served as the Title Sponsor. The event began with a warm welcome from Joseph James Samuel and Viveka Cordeiro, who presented mementos to the esteemed guests. The stage was set for a remarkable day of insight, creativity, and exploration into the world of media and cinema. Anzil Vahid, the TY student coordinator, formally introduced MediaScope 9.0, emphasizing the importance of the event as a platform for students to engage deeply with the media industry and its ever-evolving landscape.

To mark the official beginning of MediaScope 9.0, the event's backdrop was unveiled—an impressive artwork crafted by students—followed by the traditional lighting of the lamp by dignitaries. This ceremony symbolized the illumination of knowledge and the creative spark that MediaScope aims to ignite among students.

Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema, addressed the audience with an inspiring message, reflecting on the event's theme and encouraging participants to cultivate gratitude and mindfulness. He stated, “This event gives us the opportunity to look at the things around us and be grateful.” Principal Ursula Barreto followed with motivating words, urging students to make the most of their time at St. Xavier’s College and immerse themselves in creative opportunities like MediaScope. The keynote speaker, Mr. Sachin Chatte, delivered an engaging address on cinema’s multifaceted nature, emphasizing that “every frame in a movie can be a work of art.”

The event unfolded across the campus with multiple sub-events taking place simultaneously. The quiz, hosted by Sneha Tiwari (SY), and the Amazing Race challenged participants’ intellect, while Ola Amigos, Mad Ad, Face Painting, and Wordsmith unleashed creativity, pushing participants to craft imaginative masterpieces. The dance competition proved to be a highlight, showcasing captivating performances that received enthusiastic applause from the audience. The College Band entertained the crowd with energizing music, keeping the event lively.

As the event concluded, students presented a vibrant valedictory dance performance, marking a celebratory end. Hosts Aaryan Tukrel and Marushka Pereira maintained high energy throughout the program. Student coordinators Chanel Crizzle (SY) and Sheefa Tonse (TY) expressed gratitude to participants, organizers, and volunteers for their contributions. Principal Ursula Barreto congratulated everyone for their efforts, emphasizing the importance of fostering student engagement and skill development.

Co-convenor of MediaScope, Vibhav Naik, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing deep appreciation to the principal and the administration for their unwavering support. He acknowledged the faculty for their guidance and thanked the students for their enthusiasm, which greatly contributed to the event’s success. He also recognized the teachers accompanying the participants for their continuous support and mentorship.

The excitement in the air was palpable as each winner was celebrated with cheers and applause. The recognition of hard work and talent fostered camaraderie among participants and their supporters. The spirit of competition was matched by the spirit of celebration, making this event a memorable experience for all involved.

As the event concluded, it was clear that every participant had given their best, showcasing creativity, skill, and teamwork. The success of MediaScope 9.0 was a testament to the dedication of both the organizers and participants, leaving everyone eagerly anticipating next year's festivities, MediaScope 10.0.
