Familiarity with budget components 2. insights into economic priorities and goals 3. ability to analyse sector specific impacts On August 21, 2024, as part of the Research Coffee Series, Mr. Omkar M. Karpe and Mr. Aryan Luke D'Costa from FYBA Economics Minor presented a paper on the topic ‘Union Budget 2024-2025: A Microanalysis’. They focused on three of the nine priorities outlined in the budget: inclusive human resource development, infrastructure, and government tax proposals. Their presentation included discussions on revenue and capital receipts, as well as revenue and capital expenditures—highlighting how the government generates income and allocates funds. They also examined measures to address the fiscal deficit and discussed the concept of "angel tax," including its rationale and proposed abolition in the 2024-2025 budget. The session concluded with a question-and-answer segment. The analysis also covered concepts such as revenue and capital receipts, |
