Report	The Department of Hindi, in collaboration with Konkani and Marathi departments, organized a study tour covering Chandigarh, Amritsar, Dharamshala, Kullu, and Manali. The tour included visits to several historically and culturally significant sites. Highlights of the tour were: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Amritsar: Wagah Border, Golden Temple, and Jallianwala Bagh, providing insight into India's freedom struggle and cultural heritage.• Dharamshala: Dalai Lama Temple, St. John's Church, Naddi Village, War Memorial, Cricket Stadium, and Tea Garden, showcasing spiritual, historical, and ecological importance.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kullu-Manali: Snow Point, Vasisth Kund, Hadimba Temple, Tibetan Monasteries, Vaishno Devi Temple, and Shawl Factory, blending natural beauty with religious and cultural experiences The tour was a meaningful extension of the syllabus, as it explored the history of India, delving into the contributions of freedom fighters in the country's struggle for independence. This connection enriched students' understanding of historical events and their impact on modern India. Moreover, the tour highlighted the pressing issue of climate change, emphasizing its effects on both humans and animals, thereby fostering environmental awareness among students. Additionally, it celebrated India's rich cultural diversity, offering insights into various traditions, languages, and lifestyles that define the nation. This multidimensional approach helped students appreciate the interconnectedness of history, environment, and culture in shaping contemporary India A total of 42 students, accompanied by 8 teachers, participated in the tour. This diverse group ensured a well-balanced and enriching experience, as the students were guided and mentored by educators throughout the journey.
