

ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE, MAPUSA, GOA

Report of Activity conducted in the Academic Year 2024-25

Date/ Duration 11th January, 2025/7 hours 45 minutes	Name of Activity	Varitas Mantis
Name of organizing Department/Cell Abbé Faria Post Graduate Department of Psychology and Under Graduate Department of Psychology Under Graduate Department of Psychology Name/s of Faculty Co-Ordinator Prof. Janet Fernandes and Ms. Andrea D'souza Stratum of Event College level NA Resource Person/s if any Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	Name of Activity	Veritas Mentis
Name of organizing Department/Cell Abbé Faria Post Graduate Department of Psychology and Under Graduate Department of Psychology Name/s of Faculty Co-Ordinator Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary
Department/Cell		St Aaviers Conege, Mapusa-Goa
In collaboration with In collaboration with Under Graduate Department of Psychology Prof. Janet Fernandes and Ms. Andrea D'souza Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary		Abbé Faria Dant Candriata Denortment of Davids la avi
In collaboration with Name/s of Faculty Co-Ordinator Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	Department/Cen	1 , , , , ,
Name/s of Faculty Co-Ordinator Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	In collaboration with
Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	III conaboration with	Onder Graduate Department of Esychology
Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	Name/s of Faculty	Prof. Janet Fernandes
Stratum of Event Name & details of Resource Person/s if any Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	Co-Ordinator	and
Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary		Ms. Andrea D'souza
Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thamks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary		College level
Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary		NA
Report Veritas Mentis aimed to celebrate psychology by tracing its roots in Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	Resource Person/s if Greek mythology and examining its evolution through a modern lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary lens. It provided a platform for students to showcase their psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary	Report psychological knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills while fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · fostering collaboration and healthy competition. Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary Organized by the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments of Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary
Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary		Tostering collaboration and healthy competition.
The valedictory function included feedback from participants, a		Psychology at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Veritas Mentis was held on 11th January 2025. Seven teams, each named after Greek mythological figures, competed in various events. The event began with an inaugural ceremony featuring speeches by Principal Ms. Ursula Barreto, Chief Guest Ms. Sofia De Souza, and Administrator Fr. Antonio Salema. Dr. Vijay Viegas introduced the Special Guest Ms. Anuradha Kakodkar, honored by the Principal, Administrator, and former students. Miss Andrea D'Souza delivered a vote of thanks, concluding the inaugural function with the College Anthem. The event comprised of 11 competitions, including Ethereal Frames (reel-making), Titans of Trivia (quiz), Athenian Strokes (painting), Beyond the Frames (photo caption), Clash of Perspectives (debate), Rhythm of Realms (dance), Twisted Harmonies (duet singing), Ares Confession (monologue), Unseen Battles (street play), Mindsprint (treasure hunt), and Mythical Allure (fashion show). Judges assessed creativity, originality, presentation, and adherence to themes. Carmel College emerged as the overall winner, followed by Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye Government College of Art and Commerce and Rosary College of Commerce and Arts.
		speech by the Chief Guest Mr. Daniel Lobo, and a prize distribution ceremony conducted by Dr. Vijay Viegas. The event successfully blended mythology and psychology, encouraging students to think critically and express themselves through various artistic and intellectual competitions. Participants appreciated the well-organized event, and the enthusiastic engagement highlighted its impact. Veritas Mentis strengthened academic collaboration and provided students a platform to showcase their talents, leaving a lasting impression on all attendees. The number of beneficiaries was 200.

Brochure/Poster	https://xavierscollegegoa.ac.in/wp-content/uploads/2025/02/BROSHURE-Veritas-Mentis-2025pdf
Photographs	https://xavierscollegegoa.ac.in/wp-content/uploads/2025/02/Picture-1- 1.pdf
List of participants with signatures	https://xavierscollegegoa.ac.in/wp- content/uploads/2025/02/Attendance-1_merged.pdf
Certificate	https://xavierscollegegoa.ac.in/wp- content/uploads/2025/02/Certificate-1.pdf