Report	The objective of the event was to empower students through education, leadership training and networking opportunities. As part of International Networking week (INW) 2025 under the theme 'BNI beyond ' the BNI Alpha Chapter held their weekly meeting in St. Xavier's College, Mapusa Goa. The meeting provided the students with real world exposure to business networking and provided a platform for successful entrepreneurs to share their insights with their peers and students alike. The event began with a formal welcome, of the Chief Guest, Mr. Salim Isani and presentation of tokens of appreciation. formal introduction of the Leadership Team and presentation on BNI core values and a brief sharing of global statistics followed by an educational slot led by Mr. Amar Prasadi, who delivered valuable insights on professional growth and effective business networking. And weekly presentation by BNI members followed by referral exchange and shared success stories The event then moved on to the introduction of 15 new Green Club members, reinforcing the college's commitment to sustainability. A feature presentation followed, shedding light on an important business or educational topic. This was succeeded by important announcements to keep members informed of upcoming events and opportunities. The VP shared the statistics and the chief guest delivered an inspiring speech on leadership, networking, and professional development

	The event successfully fostered an environment of collaboration, recognition, and learning, aligning with BNI's mission to build strong professional networks. The meticulous planning and smooth execution ensured a productive and engaging session for all participants. This was followed by a sumptuous breakfast with members and student participants interacting during breakfast. The meeting included 25 BNI members.
