Report	A Talk on Women Empowerment was organized on 24th May 2024 at the 1 Goa BN NCC Unit Office, Panjim. The event witnessed participation from St. Xavier’s College and five other colleges, with cadets actively engaging in discussions on the importance of women's leadership and empowerment. Five Senior Wing (SW) cadets from the 1 Goa BN NCC Boys Unit of St. Xavier’s College attended the session. The resource person for the program was Care Taker Officer (CTO) Mrs. Avani Anil Kharde from St. Xavier’s College NCC Boys Unit, who delivered an insightful talk on the "Nai Roshni Scheme." The Nai Roshni Scheme is a government initiative aimed at developing leadership skills among minority women. The program instills confidence, enhances financial literacy, and helps women navigate government systems, financial institutions, and banks. It also encourages women to step beyond societal barriers, take leadership roles, and assert their rights, ensuring they benefit from various government schemes that improve their living conditions and economic independence. The session was highly informative and inspiring, reinforcing the importance of women's empowerment in fostering an inclusive and progressive society.
