| Report           | The AICUF Cell of St. Xavier's College recently hosted the  |
|                  | vibrant "Art Aurora", a three day art event on 26th, 27th & |
|                  | 28th March that brought together students passionate about  |
|                  | art. The student coordinator of the event was Ms. Shayina   |
|                  | Naik.                                                       |
|                  | On the three days, students from various streams gathered   |
|                  | on campus between 2 pm to 5 pm to paint & create unique     |
|                  | original art pieces on the theme "St. Francis Xavier & the  |
|                  | College Campus". The students participated in various       |
|                  | categories such as canvas, sculpture & eco arts and were    |
|                  | provided with all the necessary art supplies & requirements |
|                  | by AICUF. The participants created amazing artworks with    |
|                  | beautiful messages.                                         |

|                      | These stunning artworks were then kept on display for the Art Aurora Exhibition that was held on 7th April as a tribute to St. Francis Xavier on occasion of his Birth Anniversary. All the artworks with their respective description were displayed in the college lobby, where all the students, teachers & even the Principal appreciated these artworks & the talent & creativity of these young artists. |
