Report	Field Trip Report: Exploring Goa's Cultural and Religious Heritage On March 25, 2025, the Global Village Club of St. Xavier's College, in collaboration with the Abbe Faria Postgraduate Department of Psychology, the Economics Department, and the Marathi Department, organized a field trip to the Archaeological Survey of India Museum and several renowned churches and temples in Goa. The trip commenced at 11:00 AM as participants departed from college with 26 students and two faculty members, The first stop was at the Maruti Temple in Panjim at 12:00 PM. Located in the quaint neighborhood of Mala, the Maruti Temple is dedicated to Lord Hanuman. Surrounded by lush greenery, the temple offered a peaceful retreat from the city's bustle. Its simple yet elegant architecture, featuring a prominent statue of Lord Hanuman, provided a

The church houses the mortal remains of St. Francis Xavier, a revered missionary, and its intricately adorned interior exuded a deep sense of history and devotion. After exploring the church, participants took a break for lunch before continuing their journey. Next, they visited the Church of St. Francis of Assisi, Old Goa, followed by a tour of the Archaeological Survey of India Museum of Goa, located opposite the Basilica. The museum's vast collection of artifacts, including ancient sculptures, pottery, and coins, provided valuable insights into Goa's historical and cultural evolution from prehistoric times to the colonial era. The final destination was the Shree Gomanteshwar Mandir in Brahmhapuri, Old Goa. Dedicated to Lord Shiva, the temple's tranquil surroundings and scenic views created a perfect setting for reflection and prayer. The field trip concluded at 4:00 PM, leaving participants enriched with knowledge and appreciation for Goa's heritage. It was an educational and spiritually fulfilling experience, offering lasting memories of the region's historical and cultural significance.
