Report	On December 17, 2024, St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, hosted "The Reason for the Season," a vibrant Christmas celebration organized by the BBA Department in collaboration with AICUF and the Child and Women Welfare Club. The festivities commenced at 10:30 AM in the Seminar Hall, with a warm welcome for students from St. Xavier's Academy, who were treated to snacks and refreshments upon arrival. The program kicked off with engaging games such as "Santa Says" and Freeze Dance, bringing laughter and joy to the young participants. Adding to the excitement, students enjoyed having their hands adorned with intricate miniature designs. After the indoor activities, everyone gathered on the college lawn for a delightful session of carol singing, orchestrated by AICUF. Led by student Aloma, the choir filled the air with melodious tunes, complemented by a live crib display that added a traditional touch to the celebration. The event was graced by the presence of Fr. Ramiro, who extended a warm invitation to Sr. Monica, Headmistress of St. Xavier's Academy, along with the academy's teachers and students. Tokens of appreciation were presented to Sr. Monica and her team in recognition of their participation. The faculty choir then delivered a captivating musical performance, including a collaborative song with AICUF members.
