Report	On 6 September 2024, around 90 AICUF members gathered for a half-day spiritual recollection titled 'REVIVE' which aimed at renewing their faith and commitment to God. The day began with the celebration of the Holy Eucharist which was followed by an icebreaker session by the AICUF band. The resource person for the day Rev. Fr. Milchester Furtado enlightened the participants on their duties as good citizens while also upholding their Christian values. This was followed by an interesting activity led by Sir Worrel D'Souza (teacher animator of AICUF) wherein participants were divided into 12 groups and each group was given newspapers, a chart paper and few stationery items. The task given to them was to make a poster with problems found in the newspaper and quote Bible verses that offer a solution to the problem. The recollection ended with the band leading all participants to dance to the theme song of the liturgical year 'Porgottnar Tuzo'.
