Report	The AICUF Cell of St. Xavier's College, Mapusa staged a choir concert on 9 January 2025 on the college campus. The Auxiliary Bishop of Goa and Daman His Excellency Rev. Fr. Simião Fernandes was the chief guest for the evening. Many priests and religious sisters were also in attendance. The concert commenced with the choir lifting up their voices in chanting Pater Noster (Our Father in Latin). The Administrator of the College, Rev. Fr. Antonio Salema in his address appreciated the activities conducted by the AICUF Cell to form youngsters to be good Catholics in the society. Ms Ursula Barreto, the Principal of the College applauded the efforts of the students participating and well as those involved in organising, under the guidance of the

	AICUF Convenor Rev. Fr. Ramiro Luis. The evening that followed was filled with harmonious singing accompanied by a beautiful blend of strings, keys, brass and percussion. The choir was directed by Miss Aloma Saldanha, a second year student. A couple of beautiful dances added in keeping the audience immersed in the graceful environment created by the choir. The event was meticulously planned and organized by the student coordinators Miss Lynn D'Souza (Coordinator of the AICUF Cell) and Miss Crecensia Pinto (Programme Coordinator of the AICUF Cell), and gracefully compered by Ms. Alia Aga. Fr. Ramiro Luis delivered the vote of thanks, extending his appreciation to the choir, dancers, student coordinators and volunteers. The programme concluded with the choir singing 'Sam Francisku Xaviera' in honour of their beloved patron St. Francis Xavier.
