Report	The Divyanjan Cell of St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, actively participated in the Goa Liberation Day celebrations on 19th December 2024 by performing a thought-provoking street play. The play focused on advocating for the rights and dignity of differently-abled individuals, emphasizing that they should not be ill-treated due to their impediments but treated as equal human beings. It aimed to raise awareness about their right to be respected and included in society. The play was written by Nigel Pereira, a student of TYBA, whose script skillfully encapsulated the message of equality and human dignity. Directed by Mr. Silvester Vaz, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Konkani, the performance featured a talented cast of 12 students who brought the narrative to life with compelling performances. Dr. Fr. Luis Gomes, the Coordinator of the Divyanjan Cell, played a pivotal role in guiding and overseeing the initiative, ensuring its success. This impactful effort by the Divyanjan Cell not only commemorated Goa Liberation Day but also highlighted the college's commitment to fostering an inclusive and compassionate society. The contributions of Dr. Fr. Luis Gomes, along with the creative direction of Mr. Vaz and the thoughtful writing by Nigel Pereira, ensured that the play left a lasting impression on the audience.
