Report	First-Year Mass Communication and Journalism Students Visit Goa Assembly As part of their Media and News course, around 30 first-year students from the Mass Communication and Journalism program visited the Goa Legislative Assembly during its summer session. The educational visit provided students with first-hand exposure to the workings of the legislative process. During their time at the Assembly, students observed live discussions and debates on current affairs and pressing issues concerning Goa. They gained valuable insights into the state's political landscape, witnessing the dynamic exchange of viewpoints among lawmakers. The students also had the unique opportunity to meet the Chief Minister of Goa, Dr. Pramod Sawant. Additionally, they interacted with Deputy Speaker Joshua D'Souza and Opposition MLA's Yuri Alemao and Vijay Sardesai, engaging in meaningful conversations that enriched their understanding of political journalism and governance.
