Report	The Orientation for the students of the First Year Bachelors of Arts students and their parents was held on 2nd July, 2025 at the St. Xavier's Ark Hall. The Orientation began at 09:00 am by invoking the blessings of the divine through a poignant prayer by Ms. Pamela Fernandes. It was followed by the address of the Administrator, Rev. Fr Antonio Salema. He stressed upon character formation and education as goals to be set by every student. The Principal in her address likened the process of the transformation of every student to a brushstroke. Just as many brushstrokes make up a beautiful painting, in a similar fashion the many opportunities offered in the college, shape the individual. She urged the students to abide by the rules of the college and to be punctual. Parents may visit the college, meet with the teachers, and keep abreast with the progress of the child. Dr Sharmila Pais spoke on the college infrastructure and discipline. She listed the various courses and facilities offered by the college as counselling, mentors, certificate and value-added courses, cells, clubs, etc. She stressed upon the importance of maintaining discipline on the campus. All students need to always wear the uniform and the identity card. Mr Aaron Fernandes elaborated the NEP structure for the students. The NEP system is based on a flexible choice-based credit system multidisciplinary approach with multiple entry and exit options, to facilitate students to pursue career path by choosing their field of interest. The structure of examination was explained by Dr Santana Fernandes. The OA 38.14 is the ordinance related to examination. Ms Dakshata Zambulkar, the librarian spoke about the library and the facilities offered therein. Ms Rizwana Sayed described the NSS, NCC, and the Dept. of Sports. She elaborated on the various activities

	undertaken by these Cells. The orientation was attended by 208 students and 171 parents.
