Report	The Department of Konkani, St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, in collaboration with Vidhya Prabhodini College, Porvorim, organized a lecture on the topic "Electronic Journalism" on 4th October 2025 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Conference Hall of the PG Block, St. Xavier's College. The session was organized as part of the academic collaboration under the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signed earlier between the two institutions. The resource person for the session was a noted Konkani writer and journalist Mr. Shailendra Mehta, who delivered an insightful and interactive talk on various aspects of electronic journalism. A total of 39 students from both colleges attended the lecture. The programme was coordinated by Dr. Fr. Luis Gomes, faculty member of the Department of Konkani, St. Xavier's College, Mapusa. The session commenced with a welcome address by Mr. Dharma Chodankar, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Konkani, who introduced the guest speaker and highlighted the relevance of the lecture. He emphasized that both TYBA and SYBA Konkani students have topics related to Electronic Journalism in their syllabus, making the session academically significant. During the lecture, the speaker elaborated on what constitutes Electronic Journalism, its importance and growing need in the digital age, as well as its advantages and disadvantages. The session also included a historical overview of electronic media and its influence on modern journalism, especially within the Konkani context.

	Faculty members Mr. Silvester Vaz, Ms. Pranita Redkar, and Ms. Ankita Zambaulikar assisted in the coordination of the programme and ensured its smooth execution. The lecture concluded with an interactive question-and-answer session, allowing students to clarify their doubts and share perspectives on the future of electronic journalism. The session was highly appreciated by the participants for its relevance, depth, and practical insights into the evolving field of media and communication.
