Report	Objectives: 1. To promote awareness about the principles of truth, tolerance, and non-violence. 2. To encourage students to reflect on peaceful methods of conflict resolution. 3. To inspire young minds to adopt Gandhian values in their daily lives. Brief Description: The Department of Political Science celebrated the International Day of Non-Violence (2nd October 2025) on 6th October 2025. The International Day of Non-Violence is observed on 2nd October every year to promote the message of tolerance, understanding, and peaceful coexistence, in remembrance of Mahatma Gandhi. The following activities were conducted as part of the celebration by the students of SYBA (Single Major): 1. Poster Making 2. Presentation 3. Quiz

	The Poster Making activity allowed students to creatively depict messages of peace, harmony, and non-violence through visual art. This was followed by a presentation that emphasized the significance of Gandhian principles and their continued relevance in contemporary society. Quiz was organized for SYBA (Single Major) students to enhance their awareness of Mahatma Gandhi's life, philosophy, and teachings. Outcomes: 1. Students gained a deeper understanding of Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy of truth and non-violence. 2. The activities helped to inculcate values of peace, tolerance, and empathy among participants. 3. Students were encouraged to apply Gandhian principles in their daily lives and interactions. 4. The event promoted creative expression and critical thinking through posters and presentations. 5. It fostered a sense of social responsibility and moral awareness among the students. Number of Beneficiaries: A total of 20 students participated.
