Report	Objectives: 1. Reaffirm the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in the Constitution. 2. Instill civic awareness and constitutional responsibility among students and staff. 3. Mark the significance of Constitution Day as a moment of national reflection and unity. Brief description On 26th November 2025, St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, Goa, observed Constitutional Day to honour the adoption of the Constitution of India. As part of the celebration, the Preamble to the Constitution was read aloud through the public address system, ensuring collective participation across the campus.

	The Preamble was read at 9:30 a.m. by Assistant Professor Mr. Prasad Naik followed by faculty and students. The sound system broadcast allowed all classrooms, offices, and common areas to join in the solemn recitation. Students and staff stood in respect, symbolising collective commitment to constitutional ideals.
	Outcomes:
	1. The event created an atmosphere of dignity and patriotism across the campus.
	2. It reinforced the importance of constitutional values in academic and civic life.
	3. The collective reading served as a reminder of the responsibility of every citizen to uphold democratic principles.
	Number of Beneficiaries: A total of 50 students, teaching and non-teaching staff participated in this activity.
