Report	The Department of Business Studies organized an experiential learning activity titled “Business Trails: Exploring Commerce in Mapusa Market” on 15th October 2025 for the students of St. Xavier’s College. The objective of the event was to help students explore real-world business practices by engaging directly with local entrepreneurs and vendors in the bustling Mapusa Market. Students formed teams of three and participated in a photo scavenger hunt that challenged them to solve business-related riddles leading to various stalls and stores. Tasks included interacting with vendors, identifying traditional Goan products, understanding marketing techniques, and reflecting on heritage and modern retail practices. The activity encouraged teamwork, communication, observation, and analytical thinking. Students gained valuable insights into Goa’s local

	economy, trade patterns, and customer relations while documenting their learnings through photos and short reels. The event successfully bridged classroom theory with on-ground business realities in an interactive and enjoyable manner. It was followed by a reel making competition.
