Report	On 23rd January, the Department of Sociology organized a Patriotic Singing Competition to commemorate the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, remembering his courage, discipline, and unwavering love for the nation. The event aimed to instill a sense of patriotism, unity, and national pride among students. The competition was held on the theme "Azadi ka Swar – Patriotism Unplugged." Students from various streams actively participated. Participants represented different classes including FYBA, SYBA, SYBSc, and TYBSc. The performances beautifully expressed emotions of national pride, sacrifice, and unity through melodious and meaningful patriotic songs. The event was coordinated by Ma'am Simran. The competition was judged by Ma'am Elizabeth and Sir Dharma, who evaluated the participants based on singing quality, expression, coordination, and overall impact. Sir Dharma also enlightened the gathering on the true meaning of patriotism through his insightful words. The programme was supported by the Head of the Department, Prof. Afonso Botelho, along with Ma'am Rizwana, whose guidance and support ensured the smooth conduct of the event. Rachel Fernandes (T.Y.B.A.) actively engaged the audience by conducting spot prize activities, adding enthusiasm and enjoyment to the programme. The results of the competition were as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. SYBSc secured the First Place</li> <li>2. TYBSc won the Second Place.</li> </ol> The programme concluded with prize distribution, and a vote of thanks. Overall, the event was a grand success and left the students inspired with a deep sense of patriotism and national pride.
