Report	On 23 January 2026, the History Department organized an Opinion Poll Commemoration on the theme 'Reflecting on the Landmark Referendum that Shaped Goa.' The program, anchored by Stacie D'souza, began with a short introduction, followed by an insightful speech by Assistant Professor Dominic Fernandes, whose words reminded us of the sacrifices and determination of our ancestors. An elocution competition was then held, where speakers expressed their thoughts on the significance of Goa's Opinion Poll Day in Konkani and English. This was followed by a vibrant poster display, in which participants artistically depicted the essence of the day, showing that democracy can be both spoken and beautifully illustrated. To further engage students, a Quiz Competition in MCQ format tested their knowledge of Goa's historic referendum. The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dalysa Pereira. The commemoration not only honoured Goa's democratic legacy but also

	inspired students to uphold the values of democracy and cultural pride
