Report	Students of SYBBA attended the Shaping Young Minds Programme organized by the All India Management Association (AIMA) in collaboration with the Goa Management Association (GMA) on 10th October 2025 at the National Institute of Oceanography, Goa. Each speaker shared valuable life experiences, success stories, and insights on leadership, ethics, and personal growth. The interaction helped students gain a deeper understanding of career development, resilience, and the importance of purpose-driven leadership. The event provided an excellent platform for young learners to connect theory with real-world experience and reflect on their professional goals. Students returned highly motivated and appreciative of the opportunity to learn from such accomplished leaders. The session was an enriching and memorable experience for all participants. They were accompanied and supported by the BBA Coordinator, Ms. Vanessa Furtado.
