Report	The Department of English organized Continued Conversations : Awakened Voices Post GALF as a point to reflect and contemplate the enriching experiences garnered at GALF. The programme sought to create a space where learning moved beyond the classroom , imbibing the intellectual climate to create a transformed post GALF plan of action . The objectives of this session were 1) Voices of Resonance, where students shared their personal experiences at GALF. Their reflections revealed how the festival had broadened their perspectives, deepened their literary appreciation, and inspired meaningful academic curiosity. 2) A discussion on Post-GALF plans offered a planned and creative structure to the question What Next After GALF ... This segment reinforced the programme's core objective: to continue the conversations that GALF had initiated. The Learning Outcomes would include 1)To reflect on and critically engage with the ideas, themes, and discussions encountered during the Goa Arts and Literature Festival (GALF). 2)To articulate individual perspectives and insights gained from GALF through meaningful academic dialogue and collaborative discussion. 3) To connect the intellectual experiences of GALF with classroom learning, encouraging deeper literary appreciation and critical thinking. The programme was attended by the F.Y. Major and Minor students and the faculty of the Department of English
