Report	The Department of Physical Education and Sports conducted the Chess Inter-Class Tournament in a mixed format (Men & Women) at the College Ark from 2nd July 2025 onwards. The tournament was organized to encourage students to participate in indoor sports, develop concentration and strategic thinking, and provide them with an opportunity to display their talent in chess. The tournament also served as a selection platform to identify players for the college team for the forthcoming intercollegiate chess tournament. The event witnessed the participation of students from various classes, and a total of 12 students took part in the tournament. The competition was marked by keen interest, thoughtful gameplay, and a healthy competitive spirit among the participants. Each match reflected the students' analytical skills, patience, and determination to perform well. After a series of competitive rounds, Dwinnie Fernandes of FYBA MCJ emerged as the Champion by delivering an excellent performance throughout the tournament and winning the finals. Shreyash Gawas of TYBSC

	Biotechnology secured the position of Runner-up after playing consistently well and demonstrating commendable skill and focus. The tournament was successfully conducted and proved to be a valuable platform for students to enhance their mental agility, decision-making ability, and sporting spirit. Such events play an important role in promoting indoor sports in the college and motivating students to participate actively in competitive activities.
