Report	Internship Insights – A TY–SY Interaction The Department of English organised Internship Insights: A TY–SY Interaction on 23rd March 2026 in the Language Lab, under the guidance of Dr. Prema Rocha and with the support of student coordinator Sumaiya Khan. The hour long session aimed to prepare Second Year (SY) students for their upcoming internships through peer learning and shared experience. The session brought together 11 Third Year students who spoke about their internships across diverse fields such as content creation, journalism, social

	media, law, secretarial work, hospitality, teaching and event management. Their accounts offered honest, first-hand insights into workplace expectations, challenges, and the skills required to navigate professional environments effectively. An engaging question-and-answer segment allowed the 17 SY students to interact directly with the speakers, raising queries about internship opportunities, workplace dynamics, and ways to maintain a healthy and professional work culture. This exchange made the session both interactive and practically useful. As a thoughtful gesture, the SY students presented handmade bookmarks featuring quotes from their English syllabus to the TY students and faculty, adding a personal and literary touch to the interaction. The session also featured an address by Internship Supervisor Dr. Claudette Gomes, who guided students through the technical aspects of selecting suitable internships, outlining the criteria, procedures, and expectations involved. Overall, the interaction proved to be a meaningful and productive initiative, fostering continuity within the department and creating a supportive space for dialogue between outgoing and continuing batches.
