The day began with the participants watching a short video clip which shed light on the true meaning and the crux of the Holy Mass. Keeping in mind the lesson imbibed from the video, the youngsters participated in the Holy Mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. Ramiro Luis. The theme chosen for the Eucharistic celebration was 'REVIVE: Cleansed within, Renewed in Spirit, Alive in Hope'. The music and dance ministry then led an animation session to energize the youngsters. This was followed by Dr. Sam Braganza, the resource

	person for the day, enlightening the participants on believing in miracles and being rooted in Christ's love despite all that they face in life. Mr. Worrel D'Souza, teacher animator of AICUF, conducted a fun icebreaker session by putting the participants into various groups. Two of the AIUCF volunteers conducted another icebreaker game for the participants so that everyone could get to know the other better. The participants were served refreshments while they spent time interacting with each other after the icebreaker. The recollection concluded with the music and dance ministry engaging the participants in a series of action songs.
