| Report | The MA Part 1 students of the Department of Psychology organised a heartfelt Farewell Programme for the outgoing MA Part 2 batch as an expression of gratitude, appreciation, and celebration of the journey shared over the past year. The event was thoughtfully planned to honour the seniors for their mentorship, guidance, and companionship within the department. The programme began with a warm welcome, followed by reflective speeches from MA Part 1 students who acknowledged the support and encouragement extended by their seniors. They spoke about the academic guidance, shared notes, group discussions, and informal conversations that helped them adjust to postgraduate life. The farewell was not merely a formal send-off but a celebration of bonds formed through shared assignments, seminars, field visits, and departmental activities. The event included fun segments such as memory-sharing, light-hearted games, and personalised titles that highlighted the unique traits and contributions of each MA Part 2 student. A short audio-visual presentation captured moments from the academic year, evoking nostalgia and appreciation. Faculty members also addressed the gathering, offering words of encouragement and best wishes as the outgoing batch prepared to step into professional roles and new opportunities. The atmosphere was filled with warmth, laughter, and emotion. The MA Part 2 students expressed gratitude for the thoughtful gestures and reflected on their growth, challenges, and achievements during their time in the department. The exchange of tokens of appreciation symbolised mutual respect and enduring connection. Overall, the Farewell Programme was a meaningful and memorable occasion. It reinforced the values of gratitude, mentorship, and community within the department, marking the culmination of one academic journey while inspiring continued connection and success in the years ahead. |
