Report	The Department of Computer Applications successfully organized Techbytes 5.0, a one-day interclass competition, on February 26, 2026. Now in its fifth consecutive year, the event provides an important platform for students from First Year (FYBCA), Second Year (SYBCA), and Third Year (TYBCA) to showcase their talents, collaborate, and strengthen the sense of community within the department. The event was coordinated by Ms. Aquilla Afonso, BCA Department. The program commenced at 8:45 AM with a solemn prayer service. Ms. Aquilla Afonso, the Event Coordinator, delivered the opening address, highlighting the importance of participation over winning. She encouraged students to take the opportunity to collaborate with peers from other classes and embrace the spirit of healthy competition. The official inauguration was conducted by Mr. Stalin, Coordinator of the BCA Department, along with all faculty members. In keeping with the department's technical focus, the inauguration included a specially

	designed animation sequence, marking the formal start of the day's activities. A wide array of IT and non-IT competitions were organized to ensure a holistic student experience. To maintain smooth operations, each faculty member was assigned as an in-charge for two events. The competitions conducted simultaneously across various venues included: CodeStorm 5.0 ,GenArt Arena ,AI Impressions,NextGen Gamers , Spectrum Craft ,Eco Walk 5.0 ,Canvas Chronicles ,ShutterSphere, Neuron Nexus ,TurboTurf and Minute Magic. The event schedule was executed with high precision, with all activities—from technical coding challenges to creative walks and sports—proceeding on time. The interaction between FY, SY, and TY batches was notably positive, achieving the primary goal of inter-batch integration. Techbytes 5.0 concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation from all batches. The Valedictory Function, held on March 4, 2026, included the formal declaration of results, where winners were felicitated for their outstanding achievements.
