Report	Report on Outreach Programme at Mama Margaret Orphanage The Outreach programme, conducted for 25 boys studying from Class I to Class XII, commenced with a warm welcome by Ms. Arina Frank, faculty member of the Department of Microbiology, and Convenor of Cell for Promoting Inclusivity and Diversity, who addressed the gathering and highlighted the purpose of the visit. The event proceedings were then taken over by student coordinator Mr. Joel Fernandes, who efficiently compered and guided the activities for the day. A series of interactive games including Passing the Hat, and Getting IPL Team Out, added excitement and healthy competition, keeping the children fully engaged. An educational and innovative segment of the programme included a live demonstration on 3D printing, where students introduced the children to modern technology and its applications. The demonstration sparked curiosity and interest among the participants, making it both informative and inspiring. To add to the excitement, a Lucky Dip activity was organized, where the children received assorted stationery items as surprise gifts. This

	activity was met with great enthusiasm and joy. Prizes for the games were handed out by Department Head, Ms Linette de Souza and Ms. Arina Frank. As part of the outreach initiative, the Department of Microbiology also handed over exercise books, stationery materials, and groceries purchased by the department for the orphanage. This contribution was aimed at supporting the educational and daily needs of the children. The programme concluded with closing remarks, expressing gratitude to the management and children of Mama Margaret Orphanage for their warm hospitality and cooperation. The outreach programme was a fulfilling experience for both the students and faculty, reinforcing the values of empathy, service, and social commitment.
