Report	. The students of the Music and Dance Cell of St. Xavier's College successfully presented a two-day cultural outreach programme during the All India National Convention. The programme aimed to showcase the rich cultural heritage and traditional folk art forms of Goa through music, dance, and stage presentation. The first day of the programme featured a variety of vibrant Goan folk dances including Kunbi, Fugdi, Karri Fugdi, and the Nustekar Dance. The highlight of the evening was the beautifully created village scene on stage, which recreated the essence of traditional Goan village life. The audience highly appreciated the creative setup, colourful costumes, and energetic performances presented by the students. On the second day, the students performed the elegant Corridinho dance, beautifully portraying Goa's rich cultural heritage and traditions. The graceful movements, lively music, and coordinated performance received warm appreciation from the audience and guests present at the convention. Overall, the two-day cultural programme was a grand success and was appreciated by all for its authenticity, creativity, and excellent presentation. The performances

	reflected the talent, dedication, and teamwork of the students of the Music and Dance Cell of St. Xavier's College.
