Report	To commemorate the birth anniversary of the renowned French writer Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, the students of SYBA English Minor, whose timeless novella The Little Prince is a prescribed text, organized a literary tribute. The event aimed to inspire students to appreciate the enduring values of imagination, friendship, love, and humanity reflected in the classic work. Students enthusiastically participated in the celebration with Charlene De Souza sharing memorable quotes from The Little Prince, while Kiara Pereira presented interesting facts about the life of Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, his career as an aviator, and the global impact of his literary masterpiece. A public reading of the novella was conducted by Harshada Vaze, while Kajal Singh and Soha Kenkare highlighted philosophical themes such as innocence, responsibility, compassion, and the importance of seeing beyond appearances. Dean Fernandes and Voughan Fernandes chipped in as Quiz Masters. To mark the occasion, a beautifully designed green board by Rachel Nazareth, Vidvatta Vengurlekar and Shreeja Gad, featuring a heartfelt tribute to the author served as the backdrop for the event. Students proudly posed for a group photograph holding copies of The Little Prince, symbolizing the writer's literary legacy and their shared love for literature.
