Report	_____ Objectives: Ms. Dakshata Zambulkar, Librarian of St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, was the resource person for an engaging session on effectively accessing and utilising the library's print and digital resources. Students of BA, Semester I were taken to the library at 11.00 am. The resource person familiarised students with the library structure of the institution. Further, she briefed them on reference services, e-resources, journals, and research databases, encouraging them to make the library an integral part of their academic and research journey. Objectives • To familiarise students with the facilities and services available in the college library. • To introduce students to the effective use of print, reference, and digital resources for academic learning. • To develop information literacy skills for locating, evaluating, and using reliable sources. • To inspire students to cultivate regular reading and independent reading habits. • To enhance students' ability to access and utilise library resources for assignments, projects, and lifelong learning.

	Outcomes At the end of the session, students were able to: • Identify the various facilities and services available in the college library. • Locate books and other learning resources efficiently. • Access and utilise print, digital, and online resources for academic and research purposes.
