Report	The Students' Council of St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, organized The Socials 2024 on 18th December 2024 at the Xavier's Ark Hall. The event was organized by the students to come together and enjoy an evening of music, performances, and celebration. The theme for the evening was "The Masquerade," . The venue was suitably decorated in keeping with the theme, creating a vibrant and festive ambience for the celebrations. The evening featured captivating musical performances by DJ Kenzz and the college band Reveur Rhythms. Their energetic performances added to the excitement of the evening and kept the students entertained. The performances also provided a platform for the college's musical talent to engage with the student community. One of the major highlights of Socials 2024 was the Crowning of Mr. and Ms. Xaviers 2024. The ceremony celebrated the personality, confidence, and overall talent of the participating students. Mr. Christie Fernandes of TYBA was crowned Mr. Xaviers 2024, while Ms. Mehak Sayed of TYBCom was crowned Ms. Xaviers 2024. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from the students and created an atmosphere of joy and celebration. The event concluded on a memorable note, with the students carrying home cherished memories of an evening filled with music, entertainment, and celebration.
