Report	As part of the subject Hospitality Management, the Department of BBA (Travel & Tourism) organised a hands-on activity on Towel Origami and Floral Arrangements for the students of FYBBA (T&T). The activity was conducted in groups and provided students with practical exposure to skills that are particularly relevant to the housekeeping sector of the hospitality industry. Students were introduced to the fundamentals of towel folding and creative floral arrangements using local flowers, while also understanding their importance in enhancing the aesthetic appeal and guest experience in hotels. The session encouraged students to explore their creativity, develop practical skills, and understand the attention to detail required in hospitality operations. Overall, it was a fun, interactive, and enriching learning experience, allowing students to learn beyond the classroom and gain valuable hands-on knowledge. The session was conducted by faculty Ms. Chelsea Martins.
