Report	On 21 September 2026, St. Xavier's College, the Department of Sociology in collaboration with Caritas-Goa organised a session on "Discovering Social Work: Career & Internship Opportunities" under the auspices of the MoU signed by the College and Caritas. The session began at 10:00 am, with Prof. Dr. Afonso Botelho welcoming the gathering. Miss Elizabeth introduced the Resource Person, Fr. Savio Fernandes, Assistant Director of Caritas Goa. Fr. Savio, introduced the students to the institutional programs, community programs, vocational programs, counselling, music, dance and other activities initiated by Caritas with social welfare as the central aim. He also shared the experiences, difficulties and shortcomings they face as individuals and as an organization. Although they face challenges, he declared that the job is rewarding in its own way and being able to help someone is a blessing. It was an enriching session. He also provided information on the various voluntary work and internship opportunities available to the students and others. The session was then opened to questions. The students had many queries and questions. The session ended with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Miss Rizwana Parveen. Ms Arti Janardhan was the compere. 103 students attended the session.
