Report	The Department of Konkani at St. Xavier's College, Mapusa, organized an enriching Exhibition of Traditional Artefacts on 30th September 2026 at the Seminar Hall of the college. Coordinated by faculty member Mr. Silvester Vaz, the exhibition was designed to offer students and visitors a vivid, immersive experience of Goan material culture. Drawing an enthusiastic response with a total of 120 beneficiaries, the event successfully brought together students and faculty members to explore a wide array of historical and cultural items integral to traditional Goan households and livelihoods. This exhibition served as a vital educational platform dedicated to preserving, promoting, and raising awareness about Goan cultural roots and ancestral lifestyle practices. By displaying authentic traditional artefacts directly within an academic environment, the initiative effectively bridged theoretical classroom learning with tangible, living heritage. It allowed students to closely observe the intricate craftsmanship, historical evolution, and socio-cultural significance of various indigenous items that are rapidly disappearing from modern daily life. Such experiences play a fundamental role in fostering a deep sense of cultural identity and regional pride among the younger generation. Furthermore, the event underscored the Konkani Department's ongoing commitment to safeguarding intangible cultural heritage and encouraging holistic student engagement with Goan traditions, ensuring that the legacy of the region's past continues to inspire academic and cultural appreciation in the present.
