Report	An Old Goa Heritage Walk was conducted for the TYBA students of the academic year 2026–2027 on 6th September 2026 as part of their course on Indian Culture and Heritage. The walk covered several historically significant sites, including the Viceroy's Arch, the Kadamba-era temple gateway, the site of Adil Shah's Palace, the Church of St. Cajetan, the ruins of the Augustinian Tower, the Church of Our Lady of the Rosary, St. Catherine's Chapel, the Church of St. Francis of Assisi, the Basilica of Bom Jesus, Se Cathedral, and the entry point associated with Afonso de Albuquerque. Mr. Jarvis Mascarenhas, faculty member of the Department of History, served as the resource person and provided historical insights into the significance of these heritage sites. A total of 13 students participated in the programme under the guidance of Assistant Professor Mahendra Gaonkar. The heritage walk offered students an opportunity to explore Old Goa's rich historical and architectural heritage and gain a deeper understanding of its cultural significance.
