Report	The Department of Economics observed International Literacy Day by organising a Stationery Drive from 1st to 5th September 2026, with the aim of encouraging students to contribute useful stationery items for the benefit of those in need. The initiative provided students with an opportunity to participate in a meaningful community-oriented activity while promoting the values of sharing, social responsibility and empathy. The students of the College actively contributed to and supported the collection and organisation of stationery items. The collected materials were subsequently prepared for distribution to Caritas. Caritas-Goa is a social service and charitable organization in Goa, associated with the Archdiocese of Goa and Daman. It works to support people and communities, especially those who are poor, vulnerable, disadvantaged, or affected by social and economic difficulties. Objectives 1. To encourage students to develop social responsibility and a spirit of sharing by contributing stationery items for a meaningful cause. 2. To create awareness among students about the importance of supporting education and helping those in need. Outcomes 1. Students developed a greater sense of empathy, cooperation and community participation through their involvement in the drive. 2. The activity facilitated the collection and provision of essential stationery materials to beneficiaries, supporting their educational needs. The following items were donated
