Report	The activity encouraged students to explore the concept of currency while applying their creativity and understanding of the elements associated with a country’s monetary identity. Objectives 1. To develop students’ understanding of the features and significance of currency through a creative and practical activity. 2. To encourage creativity, teamwork and application of economic concepts beyond the classroom. Outcomes 1. Students were able to apply their knowledge of currency and its features in designing an original currency. 2. The activity enhanced students’ creative thinking, teamwork and presentation skills while promoting greater interest in economic concepts. Ms. Jwellyn D’Souza, student in charge of the competition, initiated the contest after explaining the rules. This contest aimed to challenge students to design, create and bring to life new currency notes for a fictitious united world. It encouraged students to showcase their artistic abilities along with a write- up, explaining the various symbols and motifs used in each note. A total of 15 teams (two students in each team) participated in the competition, with the first place awarded to Ms. Laisha Gaonkar (SYBA) and Sailee Tamhankar (SYBA). The second place was bagged by Mr. Krishna Pratap (FYBA) and Ms. Gandhali Paste (SYBSC). The programme concluded with the prize distribution ceremony and vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Kelly Fernandes. The competition resulted in a showcase of the artistic talents of students, and an appreciation for the various mediums and expressions of imagined currencies
