Report	he AICUF Cell of St. Xavier’s College, Mapusa, organised TESTIFY 2.0, an intercollegiate event based on the theme “Faith in the Scroll Era,” on 27th August 2026. The event aimed to provide a platform for students to explore and express their faith through creative and contemporary forms of communication, reflecting on the relevance of Christian values in the digital age. The programme was organised under the guidance of Ms. Ursula Barreto, Acting Principal; Rev. Fr. Antonio Salema, Administrator; and Fr. Ramiro Luis, Convenor of AICUF. The event was coordinated by student coordinators Ms. Gizane Menezes and Mr. Stephen Sampayo. The inaugural ceremony commenced with an inaugural prayer, followed by the welcome of the Chief Guest, Rev. Fr. Thomas Lobo, and addresses by the Administrator, Principal and Chief Guest. The event was formally declared open, followed by the College Anthem. The programme featured a variety of competitions designed to encourage students to communicate their faith through different forms of artistic expression. These included Worship Unplugged (A Cappella), Sent Forth (Monologue), Faith in Focus (PPT Presentation), God in My Feed (Blog Writing), Faith Frames (Bible Storyboard), Beyond the Filter (Photography), Divine Notifications

	(Reel Making) and Holy Grin (Meme Making). Each competition encouraged participants to connect Christian teachings with contemporary experiences and the realities of life in the digital world. The event witnessed participation from Rosary College of Commerce and Arts, Navelim; Carmel College of Arts, Science and Commerce for Women, Nuvem; Don Bosco College, Panjim; Fr. Agnel College of Arts and Commerce, Pilar; and Nirmala Institute of Education. The competitions provided students with opportunities to showcase their creativity, communication skills and understanding of faith while fostering fellowship and interaction among institutions. At the conclusion of the event, Nirmala Institute of Education secured First Place, while Rosary College of Commerce and Arts, Navelim, secured Second Place. TESTIFY 2.0 served as a meaningful platform for young people to reflect on how faith can be lived, expressed and shared in an increasingly digital world. The event reinforced the message that faith remains relevant to the younger generation when communicated through creativity, conviction and meaningful engagement.
