Brochure/Poster	A team lunch titled "Lunch, Laughter & Learning" was organised for the SYBBA students at Luqma De Morsel as part of an initiative to encourage teamwork and provide practical exposure to off-site dining etiquette and manners. The lunch offered students an opportunity to move beyond the classroom and practise professional social skills in a real dining environment. Prior to the class lunch, students learned and demonstrated appropriate table manners, including proper use of cutlery, posture at the table, polite conversation, and courteous interaction with peers and staff. The informal yet structured setting helped them understand how etiquette contributes to confidence, professionalism, and positive first impressions. The event also strengthened bonds among classmates, as students shared laughter, conversations, and memorable moments over a delightful meal.

	Faculty members Vanessa Furtado and Elvira De Souza guided the students throughout, making the experience both enjoyable and educational. Overall, the team lunch successfully combined learning with leisure, reinforcing the importance of good manners, mutual respect, and team spirit in personal and professional life.
